

Name: _____

Directions: Using nothing but your memory, create a map showing your route from where you live to school. Put in as many physical features as you can remember on your map. Make sure to include all essential elements of a map.

My Route from Home to School

Reflection #1: What was the most difficult part of drawing your map?

Reflection #2: Why do you think it is important to know the physical geography of your community?

Name: _____