

Amendments to the Constitution

As people read the new Constitution, they worried that another ruler might rise to power and take away their new freedom.

People suggested amendments -- or additions -- to the Constitution.

Our Constitution has 27 Amendments. The first ten are the most famous -- the Bill of Rights.