

Provides adult education instruction to recipients of TANF. Recipients of TANF benefits are required to participate in adult basic education and job training programs as a condition for eligibility. Aim of the program is to move TANF recipients into self – supporting employment, thereby reducing the number of long – term welfare recipients.