

The mission of the Dyslexia, Section 504, RtI Department of the San Antonio Independent School District

The Department provides appropriate services for students who are identified as dyslexic by trained dyslexia

Dyslexia is a specific learning disability that is neurological in origin. Dyslexia is not a reading strategy. PLEASE NOTE: Home School

Characteristics of dyslexic individuals include:

- Difficulty reading single words in isolation;
- Difficulty accurately decoding nonsense or unfamiliar words;
- Slow, inaccurate or labored oral reading; and/or
- Difficulty learning to spell.

Students identified with characteristics of dyslexia should also be evaluated for Section 504 support.