

The role of the Office of Internet Security and Communications is to provide a safe and secure internet environment for everyone within the S.A.I.S.D. network.

The implementations, management and deployment of the districts voice communications infrastructure and devices, including both legacy telephone systems and VOIP systems.

The security and central management of Wireless Access Points throughout the district.

