HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Leticia Van de Putte Graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School Texas State Senator

Shirley Tey Fox Tech High School, Law Magnet Program

- Serving her fifth term as a Texas State Senator
- Chair of the Veteran Affairs and Military Installations Committee
- Earned the Vietnam Veterans of America's "Legislator of the Year" award
- Pharmacist for more than 30 years
- Was a Kellogg Fellow at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government
- Graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School

- Plans to major in criminal justice with a master's in music
 - Member of the National Junior Honor Society
 - Participates in the Police Explorer program with the Bexar County Sheriffs Department
 - Violin player for over four and a half years
 - Student council member at Irving Academy
 - Enjoys giving back to the community

How does the future look for your student? Looking at SAISD's prestigious graduates, we'd have to say "very promising."

SAISD's schools and specialized programs are designed to mold a student's potential into readiness for college, careers and beyond. In fact, SAISD has created this cycle of success for more than 100 years. That's why we like to say that what happens in SAISD classrooms is really History in the Making.