HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Dr. Ricardo Romo Graduate of Fox Tech High School President of The University of Texas at San Antonio

Michael Gonzales Burbank High School, International Baccalaureate Program Wants to start his own company

President of The University of Texas at San Antonio which has more than 29,000 students
Appointed to the U.S.

- Appointed to the U.S. President's Board of Advisers on Historically Black Colleges and Universities
- Nationally respected urban historian
- Earned a Ph.D. from UCLA
- First Texan to run the mile in less than four minutes
- Graduated from Fox Tech High School

- Valedictorian of his eighth grade class
  - Completed 150 hours of community service at Lowell Academy
    - Member of the National Junior Honor Society
    - Third year graduate of the UTSA PREP program
    - Plans to major in Science and Engineering with minor in art
- Wants to start his own company

How does the future look for your student? Looking at SAISD's prestigious graduates, we'd have to say "very promising."

San Antonio's School District

SAISD's schools and specialized programs are designed to mold a student's potential into readiness for college, careers and beyond. In fact, SAISD has created this cycle of success for more than 100 years. That's why we like to say that what happens in SAISD classrooms is really History in the Making.