YWLA math teacher honored for educational excellence

In a surprise visit to her classroom, Carrie Pullins learned she is a San Antonio Mayoral and County Judge Outstanding Mathematics and Science Teaching Award winner.

In addition to recognition for a job well done, the Young Women's Leadership Academy mathematics teacher also received $1,000 to make lessons even more innovative and fun for her students.

Pullins and the other recipients will be honored during a Feb. 15 awards ceremony at the Education Service Center Region 20.

Each year the San Antonio Math & Science Education Coalition recognizes outstanding first- to fifth-year area educators who have demonstrated a passion, professionalism and commitment to their field, and who provide their students with creative and innovative lessons.

Celebrating the award are (l to r) YWLA principal Delia Montelongo-McLerran, counselor Oralía Gomez, teacher Carrie Pullins and SAISD Deputy Superintendent Betty Burks.

SAISD Foundation accepting grant applications, INSPIRE nominees

Whether your vision for innovative learning opportunities are bigger than your budget or you know someone deserving of public accolades, the SAISD Foundation has opportunities for you!

INNOVATIVE GRANTS

Applications now are being accepted for grants to fund school-based projects for the 2012-13 school year. The application process is open to all employees, not just limited to educators.

Amounts ranging from $250 to $4,500 will be awarded in the categories of classroom, grade level or department within a campus. This year, grants for a multi-campus project will be awarded up to $10,000.

Winners will be notified of their status during surprise visits this May so that projects will be ready for implementation at the start of the school year.

This will be the eighth cycle of grants awarded by the foundation, formed to support innovative and education excellence in SAISD.

Mailed applications must be postmarked by Tuesday, April 3, or hand delivered by 4 p.m. that day to SAISD Foundation, 518 E. Magnolia Ave.

For details email Judy Geelhoed, jgeelhoed@saisdfoundation.com or call the foundation office, 554-2235. More information and applications also can be found at the SAISD Foundation website, accessible from the SAISD home page.

Feb. 22 (Wed)- 4:30 to 6 p.m.

Gonzales Center, 518 E. Magnolia Ave.

INSPIRE AWARD

Nominations are sought to honor outstanding SAISD alumni - as well as individuals and organizations - that have had a significant impact on the District's schools, students or community.

Selection for an INSPIRE AWARD is based upon both achievement and ability to inspire others.

Recipients comprising alumni, friends and educators will be honored during an awards ceremony and gala to be held this fall in the categories of excellence, innovation, leadership and service.

Honored alumni will receive a $1,000 gift to be given in their name to their high school alma mater, while honored educators will get a $500 personal gift with a matching amount donated to their school.

The INSPIRE AWARD debuted this past September, with proceeds from the gala's price of admission funding scholarships for District students.

Deadline to apply for this year's award is Feb. 29.

'Note'able SAISD student and staff musicians in the spotlight

From award-winning mariachis to stellar solo and symphonic performances, the District's outstanding music makers are receiving some well-deserved recognition. These include the following.

Texas High School Mariachi competition

Brackenridge and Fox Tech placed among the top five in a field of 15 finalists at this Jan. 28 contest hosted by the Mexican American School Board Members Association.

Under the direction of David Zamarripa, Mariachi Tech-alitlan was third while Brack's Mariachi Aguila - directed by John Nieto - was fifth.

Texas Music Educators Association convention

Tech-alitlan also was invited to be the demonstration mariachi at TMEA's 12th-annual gathering being held in San Antonio through Feb. 11.

Also chosen to play at the convention is Sam Houston HS sophomore Jose Mejia, where the trumpeter will take the stage with the all-state symphonic and concert bands.

Selection to perform at TMEA is the highest

Year of Jazz Celebration

Invited to lead a trumpet demonstration for this KRTU-sponsored event at the San Antonio Children's Museum was Jim Manzo.

On Feb. 4 the Whittier MS band director performed selections of jazz greats including Miles Davis, and led children in an instrument parade to "When the Saints Go Marching In."

The museum is among several sites hosting events through this coming October to celebrate a decade of the radio station's jazz format.

Make tracks to the 4E Run/Walk and Health Festival

Keep your New Year's resolutions by participating in a fun activity benefiting SAISD students at the same time.

Registration is under way for the 4E (Education, Exercise, Engagement, Empowerment) 5K and 10K Run/Walk set for 8:30 a.m. Saturday, March 31, along the Mission Reach portion of the San Antonio River starting at Brackenridge HS.

There also will be a Districtwide Health Festival on the campus from 9 a.m. to noon featuring giveaways, free screenings, a pediatric mobile clinic with free immunizations, food sampling and a Kids Zone with games and events.

A free one-mile fun run will be held on the high school's track starting at 10:30 a.m.

Rates are: $25 for adults who register by Feb. 29; $35 until March 15; $30 for families; and $5 for students.

Schools registering the most participants for the 5K or 10K can earn $250, $500 or $1,000 participation awards and the top campuses can win a visit from a mascot to deliver their check.

Spread the word that this event is open to the public. Community members, alumni, parents and friends can run or walk on behalf of an SAISD school by indicating their desire to do so when registering.

District employees also can earn points through Humana's Vitality Program for training and registering for the 5K or 10K.

Event sponsors are SAISD, the SAISD Foundation and other entities. For more information and to register online go to the event section at: www.saisdfoundation.com

Join SAISD's team 'Passion for the Cure'

Advocates for H2O

Mayor Julián Castro thanks Highlands HS students (l to r) Robert Cruz, Vanessa Kinnaman and Joe Fabela for their contributions to Confluence, a one-day youth summit sponsored by San Antonio Water System. They were among area teens invited to learn about the city's water issues and how they can make a positive difference.

Customer Service Corner

Gold pin recipients set the standard as customer service role models

Carroll ECEC instructional assistant Tamarya Guess and the site's Head Start program data clerk Mark Ortiz are among the latest employees to achieve SAISD's highest honor bestowed for customer service.

Both recently qualified for gold pins.

In order to qualify, recipients must first earn three bronze pins, which can be redeemed for a silver. Two silver then can be traded for gold.

Pins provided by the Community and Parents as Partners Department are dispensed by a variety of District administrators catching employees in the act of providing excellent customer service.

"Kudos and congratulations to Ms. Guess and Mr. Ortiz for consistently delivering Level 5 customer service and exemplifying SAISD Core Values," said CAPP Director Janice Hannon.

"You are role models to all of us in SAISD! "
