Prioritized Focus Area #1		Prioritized Focus Area #2	Prioritized Focus Area #3
Essential Action	1.1 Develop campus instructional leaders with clear roles and responsibilities.	5.1 Objective-driven daily lesson plans with formative assessments.	5.3 Data-driven instruction.
Rationale	In reflecting upon last year, many key components were not in place such as a comprehensive list of responsibilities, weekly focus on student progress, and deliberate observation and feedback cycles. Focusing on this area allows us to establish systems centered on student performance and progress and teacher performance and growth in the classroom.	In reflecting upon last year, teachers were expected to turn in lesson plans but not to the depth outlined in this essential action. No feedback was given to teachers on their lesson plans and implementation of lesson plans were not monitored for alignment and rigor. Focusing on this area allows us to establish expectations around rigorous lesson planning and structures for instructional leaders to provide precise feedback to teachers.	In reflecting upon last year, 90 minute PLCs were embedded in the master schedule but every week was not focused on student data. An assessment calendar was established but conversations remained focus on the disaggregation of student data without structures to support a corrective instruction action plan. Individualized student data was not monitored on a weekly basis. Focusing on this area allows us to establish a DDI calendar, structured PLC protocols with an emphasis on a corrective instruction action plan, and individualized tracking of student and teacher data.
Desired Annual Outcome	Developing campus leadership clear, written, and transparent roles and responsibilities. Using weekly calendars to show observations, feedback and leadership meetings. Communicate performance expectations for all staff with matching job responsibilities. Grade level leaders and campus leaders use consistent protocols and processes for PLCs. Campus leadership teams meet weekly to focus on student progress and formative data. The principal providing professional development and coaching feedback to all teachers.	Teachers consistently create and submit lesson plans that are clear, effective, collaborative and differentiated. The lesson plans will include formative assessments and exemplars.	Campus leadership disaggregates data for students throughout the year by monitoring student progress. Leadership will provide evidence-based feedback to teachers. Create an action plan for PLCs, data analysis, and processes for improving student performance.
Barriers to Address During the Year	Leadership was inconsistent with expectations and presence in the classroom. Plans were completed on paper but not implemented during daily activities. Teachers were held accountable for lessons plans. Lesson plans that are developed don't always follow the backwards design approach and don't always align to the rigor of the standard. There's also no scheduled time for collaborative planning on lesson plans and assessments. Data was not used to develop a corrective instruction action plan for whole group, small group, and individualized instruction. Action plans were not required. Grade level teams also didn't collaborate on the test after assessments were given.	Lack of support. Lack of time. Having 3 principals in 8 years. Having new leadership every year and learning new expectations. Have predetermined view of leadership. I know what to do so I don't need to follow through. "The teachers are good". Everything is all good! Why should I have to include time frames if we're IB? Lack of knowledge - how to implement an activity so it not in lessons. Lesson plans are done for compliance. No feedback is given on lesson plans and teachers become compliant with lesson plans. Teachers are not agreeing with the time lesson plans are due - deadline is too early. No time to meet with the team. Data is reviewed but no action plan is in place. Teachers are not held accountable. Data is used once and never used reviewed again.	Data was inconsistently used to develop a corrective instruction action plan for whole group, small group, and individualized instruction. Action plans were not required. Grade level teams also didn't collaborate on the test after assessments were given. Data is reviewed but few action plans are in place. Teachers are not held accountable. Data is used once and never used reviewed again. Lack of available test training on what rigorous questioning should look like on an assessment and the time to create an assessment.
District Commitment Theory of Action:	If the Assistant Superintendent provides regular coaching to the principal on the implementation of PLCs, Data Review and Unit Planning, and the district ensures that the campus has access to high-quality curriculum and unit tests for all tested grades and subjects, and the district commits to providing a principal coach to help principal develop the necessary systems to monitor PLCs, Data, and Unit Plans, then the campus will be able to establish strong data-driven instruction practices, improve the quality and frequency of use of unit/lesson plans and formative assessments, and campus leaders will more frequently, effectively, and with greater role clarity engage in instructional leadership activities using Instructional Snapshots and walkthrus.

Campus leadership teams meet weekly to focus on student progress and formative data. The principal providing professional development and coaching feedback to all teachers.	Teachers consistently create and submit lesson plans that are clear, effective, collaborative and differentiated. The lesson plans will include formative assessments and exemplars.	Campus leadership disaggregates data for students throughout the year by monitoring student progress. Leadership will provide evidence-based feedback to teachers. Create an action plan for PLCs, data analysis, and processes for improving student performance.
Desired 90-day Outcome	Create rosters, assignments, calendars, schedules, roles and responsibilities for the campus leadership team and teachers.	Develop lesson plan template and train all teachers on how to use template and the expectations for submitting lesson plans each week. 80% of teachers completing and submitting weekly lesson plans via Google Classroom. Admin team providing feedback weekly to each lesson plan by Saturday noon.	Establish meeting schedules and norms. Develop the meeting agenda and minute-taking templates. Training staff to manage and facilitate their own PLCs. Admin in attendance or providing feedback to PLCs on a weekly basis.
Barriers to Address During this Cycle	Logistical concerns for scheduling and calendars. Team leaders implementing the agendas and meeting minutes with fidelity.	Teachers not understanding how to complete lesson plans. Teacher resistance to completing lesson plans. Administrators not giving timely and effective feedback. Gaining familiarity with Google Classroom.	Teachers coming to PLCs prepared and bringing the proper evidence / data with them to the PLC. Understanding how/where to find the necessary data. Gaining teacher buy-in to PLC roles and expectations. Gaining familiarity with Google Classroom.
District Actions for this Cycle	Establish clear expectations for principals to implement the necessary systems to create the schedules, calendars, roles, responsibilities for team leaders and admin team. Expect admin team to submit all documentation by the end of September.	Mandate expectations for the principal to establish a system to collect, provide timely and effective feedback for lesson plans each week. Monitor the campus principal's effectiveness with this expectation by doing bi-weekly spot checks.	Mandate that the campus submit PLC protocols, norms, and schedules to DCSI by the end of September. Spot check PLC minutes with the principal on a bi-weekly basis.
District Commitments Theory of Action	If the Assistant Superintendent provides regular coaching to the principal on the implementation of PLCs, Data Review and Unit Planning, and the district ensures that the campus has access to high-quality curriculum and unit tests for all tested grades and subjects, and the district commits to providing a principal coach to help principal develop the necessary systems to monitor PLCs, Data, and Unit Plans, then the campus will be able to establish strong data-driven instruction practices, improve the quality and frequency of use of unit/lesson plans and formative assessments, and campus leaders will more frequently, effectively, and with greater role clarity engage in instructional leadership activities using Instructional Snapshots and walkthroughs.
