NOTE: PROHIBITED COMMUNICATIONS – “DURING BLACKOUT PERIOD”- BLACKOUT PERIOD BEGINS ON POSTING DATE

The blackout period is a specified period of time during a competitive sealed procurement process in which any Proposer, bidder, or its agent or representative, is prohibited from communicating with any SAISD Board members, district employees and any contractor involved in any step in the procurement process about the affected procurement. “Involvement” in the procurement process includes but may not be limited to project management, design, development, implementation, procurement management, development of specifications, and evaluation of proposals for a particular procurement. All solicitations for competitive sealed procurements will identify a designated contact person, as per the General Terms and Conditions listed in the solicitation (provided below). All communications to and from potential Proposers, bidders, vendors and/or their representatives during the blackout period must be in accordance with this solicitation’s defined method of communication with the designated contact person. The blackout period will begin upon posting of the solicitation and end when the contract is awarded.

In those instances in which a prospective Proposer is also an incumbent contractor, the District and the incumbent contractor may contact each other with respect to the existing contract only. Under no circumstances may the District and the incumbent contractor and/or its representative(s) discuss the blacked-out procurement.

General Terms & Conditions, “Contact with SAISD” – Bidder/Offeror/Proposer/Vendor will direct all questions/concerns about the solicitation, the evaluation, and/or resulting contract to SAISD’s Director of Procurement Services. Bidder/Offeror/Proposer/Vendor or agents will have no direct contact with SAISD Board members individually nor any SAISD Evaluation Committee Member, Administrator, Deputy/Associate/Assistant Superintendent, or Superintendent, etc. without coordinating such contact with SAISD’s Director of Procurement Services prior to attempting any such contact. Failure to comply with this requirement, unless otherwise stated may result in disqualification.
